The women of Holland have quite as much to do with growing bulbs as the men. Its their fussiness, their particularity that counts so.

Why Its The Sure Way

H
O L L A N D, dyke-bounded Holland, how it instantly makes you think of wooden shoes, windmills and bulbs. Yes, and extreme cleanliness and a painstaking methodicalness, that defies all other nations. Because of such traits, quite as much as climate and soil, the Hollanders grow the finest bulbs the world produces.

But, of course, some are better than others, and quite like eggs, vary in size and quality. To make sure of only top notch quality, Mr. De Wreede, a native Hollander, stays in Holland and personally buys and superintends the packing of every bulb we sell.

As a further insurement to you, your order will be packed in a separate package over there in Holland, and will come to you in that very same original Holland package.

Its the only way we know of to surely make sure, of least possible chance of mixing of varieties, so frequent an occurrence when the bulbs are repacked over here. As an extra precaution against all possibility of the bulbs heating on board the steamer, and injuring the bloom which is in the heart of every bulb, we pack them in buckwheat hulls.

Every bulb we send you is absolutely top notch quality. That's why they are a bit higher in price than some. We guarantee without reservation, that every bulb will flower and be true to name. Any discontents will be settled promptly and happily.

How To Have Five Weeks of Bulb Blooms

TTS ALL nonsense, what some folks say about the bulb bloom season being so short. Its short, if you don't select your kinds and varieties knowingly.

To save you that bother, we asked one of the country's experts to make up for us, a collection that will give an uninterrupted succession of bloom joy for at least 5 weeks. It starts with the Snowdrops and ends with Darwin Tulips. It contains 6 kinds, 13 varieties, 258 bulbs in all and costs $$ 12$.

"Succession" Collection of Bulbs No. 1 258 Bulbs in all for $12.

Holland Grows No Finer Bulbs Than These

EVER noticed how pretty much every seller of bulbs describes their's as "choice," "extra fine," "top notch" and so on?
Apparently everybody is selling the best. If that be so, wonder what Holland does with all their second and third best?

Evidently some of them do reach this country, as a comparison of prices would rather plainly indicate. Therefore, right at the start let us establish the fact that we have nothing to do with so-called bargain bulbs-those which of necessity must be inferior.

Ours are all top notch quality. Mr. De Wreede is right on the ground in Holland, buying every bulb we sell. He buys them. He sees they are packed right. That's why we can guarantee every bulb has a flower in its heart, and that it will bloom true to name.
